

FASHIONS IN A CARIBBEAN ESPANOLE SETTING.

Local Delta Zeta alumnae join with other members of the Southern California Council of Delta Zeta sorority to stage the annual "Flame Fantasy" luncheon and fashion show on Feb. 4 at the Century Plaza Hotel to benefit the Uni-Betic camps for boys and girls. Wearing mantillas and carrying fans, denoting the Caribbean Espanole theme are, from left, Mmes. Harold O. Spang, treasurer; Alma C. Smith, member of the fashion show committee; Gordon K. Anderson, on the luncheon committee, surrounding Mrs. Norman A. DeWitt, seated, chairman of the benefit, reading Spanish poetry. (Press-Herald Photo)

CONCERT-MINDED DIRECTORS

Holding a poster showing there are two more concerts left in the 1966-67 series, one in March and one in April, these directors of the South Bay Community Concert Association plot their course for the annual membership drive set Feb. 7 through Feb. 11. They are, from left, Mrs. E. A. French, secretary; Norman Noblett, program chairman; and Mrs. Allen Hofferber, membership chairman. (Al Frederic Photo)

Delta Zeta Sorority Announces Annual Flame Fantasy Benefit

Southern California Council of Delta Zeta Sorority will stage its annual "Flame Fantasy" fashion show and luncheon on Feb. 4 at the Century Plaza Hotel. Over 1,200 Delta Zeta alumnae and their friends from Santa Barbara to San Diego will gather in the Los Angeles-Santa Monica room for a social hour at 11:30 a.m. prior to the luncheon.

Mrs. Donald Kimble of Long Beach is benefit chairman and is being assisted by Mrs. Norman DeWitt of Torrance. To carry out the theme "Caribbean Espanole," fashion models will step into a lush Spanish Garden consisting of hundreds of salmon colored blooming azalea plants. In the garden will be a gazebo from which bird cages adorned with white doves will hang.

Edith Head, a member of Delta Zeta Sorority, will commentate the couturier show, which will feature original California designs coordinated by June Van Dyke.

One of the highlights of the afternoon will be the awarding of the grand prize, a trip for two to Puerto Rico and Jamaica via Delta Air Lines. The award will be presented by Gall Patrick Jackson, a Delta Zeta.

The Flame Fantasy benefit is held annually to raise money for the Uni-Betic Camp sponsored by the non-profit Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic, Inc. The Uni-Betic Camp was established in 1941 for boys and girls with diabetes.

As a result of the 1966 Flame Fantasy, the Southern California Council of Delta Zeta Sorority was able to present $5,550 to the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic, $75 to the American Hearing Society, and $713 to the Delta Zeta Housing Fund.

Among the patronesses attending Delta Zeta's 1967 fund-raising fashion luncheon will be Mmes. Cecilia DeMille Harper, Cornwell Jackson, Art Linkletter, Ozzie Nelson, James McNulty and Thomas Sarnoff.

Among the South Bayans attending Delta Zeta's benefit will be: from El Segundo, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Thomas; from Palos Verdes Estates, Mmes. Richard Davis, Kenneth W. Heron, Walter R. Wallner, Sr.; from Palos Verdes Peninsula, Mmes. E. W. Alstaetter, Charles Desparte, John F. Hearn, Robert W. Herrington, William Koval, L. E. Ivins, John M. Moore, Manuel C. Ray, Robert S. Rose, Joseph Sedey, Jess Sevy; from Torrance, Mmes. Gordon Anderson, Norman DeWitt, Delvin J. Riesenhuber, Harold Spang.

Former residents of Palos Verdes Peninsula who will return to the Peninsula on Feb. 4 to join their friends in journeying to the benefit are Mrs. T. J. Smith of Santa Ana and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marselles of Long Beach.

Community Concert Association Volunteer Workshop Slated Tomorrow

South Bay Community Concert Association will host volunteers at a coffee workshop tomorrow morning at the Redondo Beach Elks Club. Hostesses for the event are Mrs. Tallman-Chittenden, of Torrance, campaign secretary, and Mrs. Ted Corazza of Hollywood Riviera.

The coffee workshop is being held in anticipation of the annual membership drive slated for Tuesday, Feb. 7, through Friday, Feb. 10. Hours for the drive are set from 10 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. and will end at 2 p.m. on Saturday Feb. 11.

On the calendar is a "Kick-Off" campaign banquet to be held Monday evening Feb. 6. Arrangements for this event are being handled by Mrs. Frank Doig, Manhattan Beach and Mrs. Norman Neblett, Redondo Beach.

Campaign headquarters will again be located in the Redondo Elks Club, 315 Esplanade, Redondo Beach.

There are two concerts left in the current South Bay Community series, one in March and the final concert in April.

Mrs. Allen Hofferber, membership chairman, states that the outlook for another sold-out membership drive this year is very promising. She points out that dues have not gone up in price, $7 for adults and $3.50 for students. Each year five concerts ranging from Metropolitan opera stars to folk singers are given at Mira Costa High School.

The address of the South Bay Community Concert Assn., is 17 Lariat Lane, Rolling Hills Estates.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JANUARY 22, 1967

B-1

For Retarded Children

Chi Omega Alumnae Bridge Benefit Set

Mrs. Harold Blake, general chairman, announced today that the annual Chi Omega Bridge Benefit Luncheon has been set for Saturday, March 11, at the Los Verdes Country Club, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

A social hour, from 11 a.m. to 12, will precede the buffet luncheon and an afternoon of bridge.

Proceeds from this annual event will go to the Garden Valley School for Mentally Retarded Children.

All South Bay area residents are cordially invited to attend and may make reservations by calling Mmes. Ronald Sullivan in the Palos Verdes Peninsula; William Schneider in Hermosa Beach; William Franklin in Redondo Beach; or Albert Stephenson in Palos Verdes Estates.

Volunteers Commended for Ten Years of Service Hours

More than 650,000 hours of service during the past ten years by the Auxiliary to the Harbor Hospital and the Candy Strippers, teenage volunteers, brought recognition this week from the County Supervisors.

In a simple ceremony, a scroll was personally presented by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn to Mrs. Marguerite Broen McAllister, chief of patient services, who in turn presented it to Leslie R. Smith, administrator.

The illuminated scroll, a testimonial to the groups' services within and outside the hospital (fund-raising campaigns), hangs in the main lobby of the 1000 West Carson St. facility.

In making the presentation Supervisor Hahn said "The Board desires the members of the Auxiliary and Candy Strippers to know that we have a deep felt appreciation of the unselfish and dedicated work they are providing in their volunteer activities. It is gratifying to know that so many are so willing to give of their time and labor in the cause of aiding their less fortunate fellow beings."

PRESENTED WITH SCROLL

Auxiliary at the Harbor General Hospital and the Candy Strippers (teenage volunteers) have totaled more than 650,000 hours of service at the hospital during the past 10 years. Their dedication and labor for the patients at the County Hospital was commended by the supervisors this week. At the scroll presentation are from left, Mrs. William Hoag, Palos Verdes, auxiliary president; Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, Mrs. Charles Groh, Torrance, Mrs. Marguerite McAllister, chief of patient services.

CANDY STRIPPERS HONORED

Candy Strippers (teenage volunteers) at Harbor General Hospital were honored by the County Supervisors for their hours of service at the hospital. At the scroll presentation are, from left, Leslie R. Smith, administrator; Mrs. Marguerite Broen McAllister, chief of patients services; Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, Trudy Mellusi of San Pedro; Thomas Crispin, Torrance and Carla Letherer, Harbor City, president and vice presidents of the Candy Strippers.